

THE GARDEN CAFÉ

1745 COTTAGE TRAQUAIR

We are delighted to present a light-hearted pre-theatre supper of tasty goodness before you dip into the delights of Much Ado About Nothing.

"Mine eyes smell onions"

A rich and generous French onion soup with gruyere crouton, fresh crusty bread and a garden salad £8.50

A (quarter) pound of flesh...Burger (100% venison) with hand-cut chips (veggie option available) £9.50

"Exit, pursued by a bear "

Traquair Bear Ale Steak Pie, with buttered baby potatoes £11.50

"I had rather live with cheese and garlic"

A rich and delicious cheese fondue, with dipping breads and salad £9.50

"These are flowers of middle summer..."

A refreshing garden and smoked salmon salad with roasted summer vegetables, edible flowers and herbs £10.50

oOo

"I saw good strawberries in your garden "

Fresh Scottish strawberries with shortcake and whipped cream £4.50

"There shall be no more cakes and ale"

Freshly baked chocolate and ale cake, served warm with Overlangshaw ice-cream £4.50

"Shall I compare thee to a summer ..."

Pudding! The classic fruit and bread dessert with pouring cream £4.50

Please ask your server about allergen information